Ikamva was a hive of activity with a number of activities taking place over the space of the last four days.

It all started Saturday when Ajax Cape Town hosted the Ajax U10 seven-a-side tournament, followed by the Pick n Pay Soccer Tournament. Ikamva hosted seven teams their management and local Pick n Pay staff who supported the teams over the last three days for the Pick n Pay Soccer Tournament.

However flying under the radar was a delegation from Ajax Amsterdam are in Cape Town for their annual board meeting and to visit Ikamva.

The Amsterdam delegation consisted of Jeroen Slop, Henri Van der Aat, Maarten Stekelenburg and Danny Blind.

Henri is the Acting Managing Director and Jeroen Financial Director of Ajax Amsterdam

Danny Blind is an Ajax Amsterdam legend who has served the club with distinction as a player, coach and now as their manager of technical affairs.

Maarten Stekelenburg a former Ajax Amsterdam goalkeeper moved to coaching when he took charge of the B1 Amsterdam Youth team.

On Saturday the Ajax Cape Town PSL team played a training game at the Athlone Stadium for the benefit of the Amsterdam delegation.

The delegation also had the opportunity to cast an eye over the Urban Warriors Youth teams.

After their brief visit they returned to Amsterdam on Monday 13 October 2008.
